

2008 Oktoberfest Prince and Princess:

Prince: Jackson Nay, age 7, son of Rachael and Paul Nay

Princess: Brooklyn Bradley, age 6, daughter of Ryan and Lindsay Bradley

1st runner up for total money collected: Matti Hague, age 6, daughter of John & Christie Hague

2nd runner up for total money collected: Marissa Reedy, age 9, daughter of Heather and Jeff Reedy

The Prince and Princess contest is organized by the ESA Beta Kappa Sorority, and contestants collect donations for the Philanthropic projects of the sorority. The boy and girl collecting the most donations are elected Prince and Princess of the Oktoberfest. They, along with the complete court of contestants, will be riding on the Oktoberfest shuttle during the parade at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday.

2008 Baking Contest Winners

PIE BAKING: 1ST Place – Lavena Hauer – peanut butter pie

2nd place – Michelle Nichter – candy apple streusel pie

3rd place – Kelly Lwson – strawberry rhubarb pie

CAKE BAKING: 1st Place – Mindy Murray – Turtle Cheesecake

2nd Place – Alicia Froedje – caramel applesauce spice cake

3rd place – Kelly England – triple layer carrot cake

The baking contest is sponsored by Larry Nunn & Associates, CPA. First place winners receive $100, Second Place winners $50, and Third place winners $25.

2008 Window Decorating Contest Winners

1st Place – Community Building

2nd Place – Prestigious Affairs

3rd Place – Global Travel

2008 Oktoberfest Booth Winners

Arts & Crafts - 1st Place Libby Tabeling, 2nd Place Circle B Crafts

Food/Activity – 1st Place Cornerstone Church, 2nd Place Wild Bill's

New Booth Award - Seymour Harvest Church

