

2023 Seymour Oktoberfest's 50th Anniversary Stein Hoist

Rules:

- Participants must hold a full 1 liter beer stein (1/2 liter for women's division) with a straight arm in front of them. The male or female contestant who holds up the steins for the longest time will win. It is that simple!
- If a participant bends his or her arm or spills any amount of beer, they will be eliminated from competition.
- We will have professional stein hoisting referees on hand to explain what is prohibited and judge the competition.

Contestants:

- All contestants will have to be 21 years or older.
- We will have a male and female division with 12 competitors in each division.
- (New) Contestants will enter the contestant pool, only returning Male and Female champion from the previous year will be guaranteed a spot!

Location:

- Seymour Oktoberfest Biergarten, located at 2nd & Walnut Street

Time:

- Saturday, October 7th, 2023.
- Chosen contestants are to report to at 3:00 PM to sign-in.
- The competition will begin to ramp up at 3:30 PM and the official start will be at 4:00 PM.
- The women's division will be first followed by the men.

Liability:

- Each contestant will be required to review the rules before competing.
- Also, each contestant must agree to the hold harmless agreement.
- Keep in mind this is not a drinking game. In fact, you will be eliminated for drinking during the competition.

Registration:

- To register to be included in the first 12 (maximum) contestant pool for each division, sign-up online through October 6th, 2023.